The Story of the White Heart

ON GRAND CIRCUIT

Lillian R. Won the Feature Trotting Race at Lexington.

Lost First Heat But Took Second, Third and Fourth.

Sweet Marie Came Within a Trifle of Her Best Mile.

Dan Patch Worked Hard for Record Mile But Failed.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—Lillian R., owned by David Shaw of Pittsburg, won the Johnston stake for 2:24 class trotters at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association from a field of brilliant 2:10 trotters. The game Lillian R., although lame from her hard campaign on the grand circuit, won three successive heats after losing the first heat to Sister Collette, full sister to Charlie Herr. Brilliant Girl, favorite in the race, was distanced in the first heat. She has broken down and will probably never race again. Lillian R. had no trouble in winning the second, third and fourth heats of the Johnston stake as her driver, J. McDewitt, having the pole, kept the mare in good position from the start to finish.

The 2:10 class trotting required seven heats to decide the contest. The race was between Dr. Frasse, California Wonder, Crattan Belle and Charlie T. In this race as in all of the other events

How Good Food may Turn to Poison.

DECA is not digestion, you know, even when it takes place in the stomach. Food decayed in the body after being eaten is as dangerous to health as food decayed before being eaten. Food poisons are poisons, just according to how long it remains in the bowels undigested.

Most of the Digestion occurs in the thirty feet of intestines.

They are lined with a set of little mouths, that squeeze Digestive Juices into the Food eaten. The intestines are also lined with millions of little suction pumps, that draw the Nutrient from Food, as it passes them in going through.

But, when the Bowel-Muscles are weak, the Food moves too slowly to stimulate the little Gastro Mouths and there is no flow or too little flow of Digestive Juice, to change the Food into nourishment. Then, the food decays in the Bowels, and the little suction pumps draw Poison from the decayed Food, into the blood, instead of the Nutrition they should have drawn.

Now, Cascarets contain the only combination of drugs that Stimulates these Muscles of the Bowels and Intestines just as a Cold Bath, or open-air Exercise, stimulates a Lazy Man.

Cascarets therefore act like Exercise.

They produce the same sort of Natural result that a Six Mile walk in the country would produce without any injurious chemical effect.

The Vest Pocket Cascaret Box is sold by all Druggists at Ten Cents.

Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Starling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

of the day the fields were so large that much scoring had to be done before the horses received the word, but in each heat the spectators were rewarded by some of the closest and most stirring finishes that have ever been seen at the breeders' course. Dr. Frasse served as the medium of a big killing which was made by his owner, Al Gorman of San Francisco.

Budd, a consistent grand circuit performer, won the 2:18 class trotting after dropping the first two heats to Robin C.

The 2:18 class pace and the 2:08 class trotting were unfinished. Robert Kerman won two heats of the 2:18 class, while The President and W. J. Lewis each succeeded in winning one heat in the 2:08 class trotting.

Sweet Marie has a mark of 2:32 and finished the mile this afternoon in 2:03 3/4. She would probably have broken her record had it not been that she faltered in the stretch, and her driver, thinking she was about to break, pulled her up. She made the quarter in 31 1/2, half 1:00, three-quarters in 1:30 1/2, mile in 2:03 3/4.

Dan Patch went the mile in 1:38, three seconds slower than his record. The quarter was made in 30 1/4, half in 59, the three-quarters in 1:28, mile in 1:58.

HASKELL UNUSUALLY STRONG.

Indiana Defeat K. C. Medics by the Score of 28 to 0.

Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 9.—In the opening game of the season for the Haskell Indians played Monday afternoon on Haskell field, the Redskins defeated the Kansas City Medics by a score of 28 to 0. Outweighed almost 15 pounds to the man the speedy Indiana players pumpeled the beety doctors at every stage of the game. Never for a moment did the Kansas City team threaten the Haskell goal, and the only question of how large the score would be.

The entire Indian team was composed of new men with the exception of St. Gorman and Felix, and as a result some of the Haskell players were a trifle nervous at first. After the first touchdown the Haskell players were only a question of how large the score would be. STATEMENT OF MANAGERS.

Both Jones and Chance Conservative But Confident.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Picking winners in baseball is a dangerous proposition. The dope goes wrong oftener than it turns out right. While I am not claiming any walk-away in the series with the Cubs, I think we'll be champions of the world when the event is over. I can't see where the Cubs have anything on us.—F. A. Jones, manager and captain, Sox.

Pittsburg, Oct. 9.—I don't care to play the post-season games through the press or in the hotel lobby. We beat the White Sox last fall in a gallop and this year is much the same. Now that it was last year, I don't see why we shouldn't repeat. I can tell more after the post-season series is over.—F. L. Chance, manager and captain, Cubs.

Will Be Manager Beckley.

New York, Oct. 9.—Jack Beckley, first baseman of the St. Louis Nationals, is now spoken of as the probable manager of the Jersey City club, of the Eastern league. Beckley and Manager McCloskey, of the Cardinals, have been at loggerheads for some time, and, as the latter is anxious to get rid of Jack, it is said that an offer has been made to him to manage the "Skeeters" in place of Billy Murray.

who has been engaged to manage the Philadelphia National league club next season.

BAD FOR MANHATTAN.

Prospects for Winning First Football Game Not Encouraging.

Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 9.—With the first game of the season less than a week off, football prospects at Agricultural college are anything but promising. This is so, not because of a lack of material, for practically all of last year's team are back, but because of the poor condition of the men. Not until the middle of last week was any scrimmage work engaged in and some of the regular men have not had any scrimmage work at all. At present Wilber, the center, is in bed with a badly sprained knee, while Montgomery, Scholz and Haggman are laid up with bruises and sprains. All of them, with the exception of Scholz and Wilber, will probably be in the game with Haskell next Saturday.

At present it looks as though the lineup for Saturday's game will be as follows: center, Heinrich; guards, Seng and Ostlund; tackles, Montgomery and Haggman; ends, Blake and Walker; quarter, Graves or Milligan; right half, Nystrom; left half, Captain Miller; full, Cave. In the scrimmage work last Saturday, the freshman team played the regulars to a standstill. Only once did the "arsity" score on the scrubs in twenty-five minutes of play. The scrubs are unusually strong this year, however, as the team is composed entirely of high school men or players who have come from other schools.

ARKANSAS O. DRURY.

Football Eleven That Is to Play K. U. Shows They Are Fighters.

Fayetteville, Ark., Oct. 9.—Arkansas played Drury to a standstill, the score being 0 to 0. Drury had no plays, but depended altogether on line kicking. The plays made gains that would have won the game under the old five yard rule, but ten yards was too far for the Springfield team to make in three downs.

Stuart was the star of the visiting team. He was the only man who made any great gains, and until Arkansas showed this Drury had things their own way. Arkansas used many spectacular plays, the forward pass especially. This was used successfully five times and was successful only once. The play was made by Quarter Back Woods, throwing the ball to Halfback Watkins, who ran out to receive the ball.

Arkansas would have probably won the game in two or three more plays had time not been called. At the end of the game the Redskins had the ball within four yards of Drury's goal. Arkansas plays the University of Kansas at Lawrence Saturday.

FOR SPRING TRACK WORK.

Manhattan Agricultural College Has Fine Prospects.

Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 9.—Already the students at the Agricultural college are discussing the prospects for track work next spring. Captain Milligan, who holds two state records in school again, although K. U. may several strenuous efforts to get him. Watkins, who won first place in the pole vault at the state meet, is in college taking post graduate work and he will be on the team. Cain, who came out first in the 100 yard dash in every meet he entered last spring, will come back during the winter term.

The team will also be greatly strengthened by a number of new men. Clifford Young, who won a number of gold medals while representing the Rochester, N. Y., high school, will be eligible for track work and will help in both the broad and the high jump.

Y. G. Manalo, Filipino, who has been attending manual training high school at Indianapolis, is in college and will be on the team. He has a record on the broad jump of 23 feet.

DOPE MAKES BROWN THE STAR. The Chicago Nationals' Twitler the Sensation of the Year.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Mordca Brown, the champion pitcher of the championship Chicago National team, was born October 19, 1876, at Nyesville, Ind. His home town is now Terre Haute. Brown stands 5 ft. 10 1/2 inches high and weighs 172 pounds. He has three fingers on his pitching hand and claims this gives him better control. Early in life he lost the first finger, only the stub of it remaining to aid in his control, which is called perfect. His early years were spent around coal mines. He got to playing ball with a miners' team, his position before third base. He was a member of the Co-ville (Ind.) team for some time before he became a pitcher, quite by accident. There was considerable betting on the game and the regular pitcher failed to show up in shape to work. Brown was selected to pitch, as there was no one on the team who could throw as swift and straight a ball as he did. He won the game and has been a pitcher ever since. That happened in the fall of 1900, and this game gave him a big local reputation. In 1901 he was signed up by Terre Haute, of the Three-I League. In 1902 Manager O'Rourke, of the Omaha team, took hold of him and the next year the St. Louis National League team bought him because he was the leading pitcher of the Western league. In the spring of 1904 Brown was traded to the Chicago Cubs, with John O'Neill, a catcher, for Pitcher Jack Taylor and Catcher McLeod.

Brown has pitched two games in which his opponents made only one hit, one game in which he allowed only two hits and five games in which only three hits were made off him. Eight of the twenty-seven victories to his credit have been shutouts. No pitcher in his league has approached that record of effectiveness on the slab against all comers, although Young of Tenney's staff has pitched three games in which only one hit was made off his delivery. In general, however, Young's effectiveness has been in the past, while Brown's has been almost continuous.

Twice Brown has held Pittsburg down to a single hit in nine innings, and one of the occasions was the freak battle of July 4, in which Spauld and Plunk made one hit apiece and Chance's men scored the only run in the ninth, Lefield being the loser.

GOOD FOR BENNIE HENDERSON.

Former Guthrie Player Is Sold to American League.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Benny Henderson, who pitched last season for Guthrie in the Western association, has been sold to the Philadelphia Athletics and will try his hand at American league pitching next year. Since the last two months of last season Henderson has been with the Portland, Ore., Pacific Coast league. He had trouble in Guthrie, though recognized as one of the association's best twirlers, and was sent to the Athletics. Later he turned up at Portland and McCredie procured his release from Guthrie. Since then he has been pitching great ball. This year he won 17 games and was sold to Cincinnati, have been the Oregon town's unbeatables. They have put Portland in the lead of the longest pennant race of the country.

Jack McAniff Buys a Pacer.

New York, Oct. 9.—Jack McAniff, the former light horse champion, has just bought a race horse named Pacer. He is now a race horse owner. On Saturday he bought the bay pacer Pacer at the sale of horses in training from James R. Keene's stable, paying $1,500 for it.

Burke May Captain Athletics.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Jimmy Burke, who managed the Kansas City team in the American association this year, is being prominently mentioned for the captaincy of the Philadelphia Athletics for next year. Connie Mack has neither denied nor confirmed this re-
